

Describe a social, political or economic issue that is important to you. Why is this issue important to you? How do you hope your participation in the Civic Education Workshop will help you to address this issue when you return home?